

Objective: To contribute to the development of the health potential of children through comprehensive training, using the school as a strategic context to promote a culture of health and from there spread their effects to the entire community.

Components

- Quality of education and health education with a comprehensive approach.
- Healthy Environments.
- Health services, food and school nutrition.
- Community Participation.

Topic: Health for all and all for health

Responsible: Directorate of Public Policy and Social Determinants

Directorate General of Health Promotion

Ministry of Public Health and Social Welfare

Country: Paraguay