Hepatitis strategy at a glance: From WHO products to results in countries

| Strategic axis | WHO products (Attribution) | In country results (Contribution) | | Outcome/ impact |
| | WHO products | Country basic operational framework | | |
		Plans	Results
1. Partnership, mobilization and communication	Support for World Hepatitis Day	Hepatitis Day action	- High awareness - Absence of discrimination	- Reduced rates of new infections
	Network of collaborating centres	Centres of excellence
	Civil society collaborations	National patient group
	Resource mobilization strategy	Funded national plan
	External communication strategy	IEC strategy		- Reduced fulminant hepatitis mortality
2. Data for policy and action	Disease burden estimates	Burden estimates	- Evidence based, cost-effective policy and plans
	Impact assessment tools	National sero-survey (s)
	Surveillance and outbreak investigation standards	Sentinel surveillance sites
	Country profiles	Coordination cell at MoH		- Improved quality of life for patients with chronic hepatitis
	Research agenda	National research agenda
3. Prevention of transmission	Guidance and tools for immunization for A, B and E	EPI schedule and SOPs	- Immunization coverage increased - Safe health care - Safe sex - Harm reduction
	Safe health care standards and tools	BBV[†] prevention plans
	Harm reduction tools for injection drug users	IDU care programme
	Safe food and water strategies	Food and water safety
	Safe sexual practice guidance	Health promotion
4. Screening, care and treatment	Screening and counseling resource package	National screening plans	- Infected patients identified, care provided and treated	- Reduced mortality from cirrhosis and HCC [*]
	Diagnostic standards	Lab SOPs and network
	Care and treatment guidelines for B and C	National care policy / plans
	Training package for health care providers	National curriculum
	Equity in access to treatment and drugs	Essential medicines in list

---

[*] Hepatocellular carcinoma

[†] Blood-borne viruses

Version 4 – 10 June 2011