

What am I?

I'm the Anopheles mosquito and I can transmit Malaria.

What is Malaria?

It's a disease that can cause fever and flu-like symptoms.

Where can I be found?

I can be found in tropical and subtropical regions including Sub-Saharan Africa, Asia and the Americas.

What can you do to prevent this disease?

- Get rid of standing water indoors and outdoors
- Wear light-colored shirts and trousers
- Use insect repellent

Send us your art to events@paho.org and we will feature it in our website
