

PAHO AWARD FOR HEALTH SERVICES MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP 2024

1. The Award Committee of the PAHO Award for Health Services Management and Leadership 2024, made up of the delegates of Guyana, United States of America and Uruguay, met on 24 and 25 June 2024, during the 174th Session of the Executive Committee of Pan American Health Organization (PAHO). After examining the documentation on the candidates nominated by the Member States, the Award Committee decided to recommend that the PAHO Award for Health Services Management and Leadership 2024 be conferred on Dr. Jean Patrick Alfred, from Haiti, for his leadership in the development of health policy initiatives during his professional career, and in particular, Haiti's 2012–2022 health plan, whose primary health care approach has strengthened the health system and made it more resilient and people-centered.
2. The Executive Committee considered the report of the Award Committee, Document CE174/5, Add. I (1), and adopted Resolution CE174.R12 (2).
3. The Award will be conferred on Dr. Jean Patrick Alfred in a ceremony to be held during the 61st Directing Council of PAHO, 76th Session of the Regional Committee of WHO for the Americas.
